Unitherm is a major independent specialty insulation contractor with locations along the east coast. We regularly perform insulation contracts for some of the largest companies in the United States.

Why Do We Succeed?

COMPETITIVE SPIRIT.

Our company is synergetic and innovative because the people who manage it have a personal interest in its success. We believe that as an independent contractor, free from outside restriction, we can best serve the needs of our clients.

EXPERIENCE.

Over the years, we have performed every conceivable type of thermal insulation project from Power Plants to classrooms. Throughout our company history we have participated in not only the development, but also the implementation, of innovative insulation technologies.

TOTAL CAPABILITY.

Unitherm has a strong base of qualified employees. Our Project Managers study client needs and offer the most economical solution to your thermal insulation project. Our Supervisors and Craftsmen are committed to on-time performance.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

Unitherm stands as a benchmark of financial integrity for the insulation industry. We have a reputation for honesty, integrity, fulfilling our promises, and meeting customer needs in a timely manner.

COMPETITIVE SPIRIT. EXPERIENCE.
TOTAL CAPABILITY. FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

SAFETY

OVER 3,000,000 HOURS
WITHOUT A LOST TIME
ACCIDENT

Unitherm, Inc. is proactive in promoting the good health and well-being of our employees & in creating an injury free environment. When a company truly commits itself to safety, it creates a workplace where employees have careers free of injury and illness.

While Unitherm's EMR rate of 0.73 is decidedly below industry standards, we believe that all accidents are preventable.
